Mrs. M. H. Brown returned last How it Was Done. What is to be Done, and Who is to do it.

For some time past it has been evident to the few readers of the Daily Union that the current of that sheet was tending directly towards the postal ring, the members of which clique having found in that journal a willing champion to defend their many peccadilloes. Within the last fewdays rumors have been current on the streets that negotiations were being made by the postal gang to purchase the Union andwe can now say on goodauthority that those negotiations have culmi-
